

Common Human Resource Information Standards

Office of Postsecondary Education Academic Institution Identifier

Office of Postsecondary Education Academic Institution Identifier is a unique number assigned to each accredited academic institution by the Department of Education.

Permitted Values

George Washington University
George Washington University - Law School
Georgetown University
Georgetown University - Graduate School
Philosophisch Theologische Hochschule Sankt Georgen (Frankfurt, Germany)

Structural Business Rules

A postsecondary educational institution is an educational institution offering a program of courses and instruction that leads to associate's, bachelor's, or graduate degrees.

An accredited educational institution is an educational institution that is currently accredited by an accrediting body recognized by the United States Department of Education.

Tuition Assistance for DoD Military Service members must be provided only for courses offered by an accredited postsecondary educational institutions in a program of courses and instruction that leads to associate's, bachelor's, or graduate degrees.

A DoD Military Service member must keep his or her academic institution information current in their record.

Reference Documents

The Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System Glossary, OPE ID

PII	Owner	Steward
No	NA	NA